FORTY-FIFTH
ANNUAL EXHIBITION
OF THE
WASHINGTON WATER COLOR CLUB

December 14, 1940, through January 19, 1941

THE CORCORAN GALLERY OF ART
Washington, D. C.

---

---

The Washington Water Color Club, one of the oldest groups of artists in the National Capital, was founded forty-five years ago. Parker Lane was the president, Edmund Clarence Messer the vice-president, Lillian Cook, secretary, and Carl Weller, treasurer.

The first exhibition was held at the Cosmos Club in December of 1896. Fifty-three painters were represented, among them such well-known names as Charles Dana Gibson, Lucian Powell, Wells M. Sawyer, and Hobart Nichols.

For forty-one years the club has been privileged to exhibit at the Corcoran Gallery of Art.

No record of the Washington Water Color Club could omit tribute to Dr. William H. Holmes, artist and scientist, who served as president from 1900 to 1904, and from 1914 to 1930. It was largely through his interest and untiring efforts that the club grew to the important position it now occupies.

Inquiry concerning the purchase of works should be made of the agent in charge of the exhibition at the desk.

Prices include frames.

Payment for works purchased should be made before the close of the exhibition. Checks should be drawn to the order of Washington Water Color Club, Eleanor Parke Custis, 626 East Capitol Street.

The Washington Water Color Club, in presenting its Forty-fifth Annual Exhibition, desires to acknowledge its great indebtedness to the Trustees of The Corcoran Gallery of Art for the use of the Special Exhibition Room.

The exhibition will be open to the public from Saturday, December 14, 1940, through Sunday, January 19, 1941.

The gallery will be Closed on Christmas Day but will be open, admission free, on New Year's Day from 2 to 5 p.m.
